

The illustration depicts a vibrant underwater scene. Two children are the central figures: one in the foreground with a large, happy smile, and another in the background looking upwards. They are surrounded by colorful coral reefs in shades of pink, purple, and green. Numerous blue bubbles of various sizes float around them, and several small, colorful fish (purple, blue, and pink) are swimming in the blue water. The overall style is bright and whimsical, typical of children's educational materials.
