The Great Zodiac Race

Plot Summary

The Great Zodiac Race is a mythical story in which the Jade Emperor, in order to help humankind to mark time, arranges a race to choose which animals will give their names to the 12-year cycle of the Chinese Zodiac. Using cunning and underhand tactics, the rat ends up coming first in the race.

Scene 1 – In the Emperor's Palace

Emperor: What business do all of you have coming here today?

Citizen 1: Your Majesty, we have a problem.

Citizen 2: For many years, we have used different ways of recording the change of the seasons.

Emperor: Indeed! We record the time the weather changes, the flowers open up or fall down.

Citizen 1: There is also variation in the times of night and day. We can record all of these aspects.

Citizen 2: But these time recording methods are all inaccurate. How are we ever going to record special days?

Emperor: You mean like family members' birthdays and festivals? Got it. Keep on speaking!

Citizen 1: Previously we always used to record the weather in different seasons, the changes in trees' foliage and cycles of day and night. But the timing was all inaccurate.

Citizen 2: We want to record the beginnings and ends of the seasons accurately.

Emperor: I have been continuously thinking about this issue.

Citizen 1: Your Majesty, can you help us?

Citizen 2: We would be so grateful.

Emperor: I want to hold a competition for crossing the river. However, crossing the river successfully will not be easy!

Citizen 1: I will participate! I will go to prepare right now!

Emperor: Wait until I've finished speaking! Only animals will be allowed to take part in this race.

Citizen 2: This is so intriguing! I will let my animal friends know. I will get them all to take part in the race!

Emperor: I want to reward the first twelve animals in the race. I will use them to name the years.

Cat: Brother Rat, Brother Ox! I have some good news for you!

Rat: Quickly tell us. What is the good news?

Cat: The emperor wants to hold a competition for crossing the river! He's going to name the years after the first twelve animals.

Ox: Cat, what is a year?

Cat: The four seasons, spring, summer, autumn and winter put together are one year. A "year" is used for recording time.

Rat: Wow! If a year can be named after me, I will be so honoured!

Ox: I am not clever, but I am very strong. I can definitely come first! My name will be used for the first year!

Cat: You all have good ideas, but there is still a difficulty. We have to swim across that big river.

Rat: I am so small and the river is so wide. I will definitely drown!

Cat: (Cat calls Rat over to one side and whispers something to him in secret.) Brother Rat, I have an idea. We can get Ox to help us to cross the river.

Rat: How will he help us?

Cat: Get him to carry us across the river on his back! He is so strong and we are so puny. There won't be any problem.

Rat: Right, Ox is so kind. We will plead with him to help us. He is sure to agree.

Cat: OK, I will have a go. Quickly, come and look. You are full of energy today, Ox.

Rat: And you are looking stronger than normal.

Ox: Oh! Thanks for your praise, you two!

Cat: You must have washed today, your body odour is really ... (He sniffs Ox's odour, and is shocked by the stench. However, he pretends that he did not smell anything bad.) ... pungent enough!

Rat: Right, it is pungent enough! You are so pungent. You must be the strongest animal in the world.

Ox: Wow! No one has ever praised me like that before!

Cat: Brother Ox, compared to you, we are so puny!

Rat: Right. We will never be able to cross that river! If we can't participate in the race, it will be so upsetting.

Ox: Don't cry, don't cry, Rat. Together, we'll come up with a way!

Cat: If someone is willing to help us ...

Rat: Put us on his back ... (There is a pause. They wait for Ox to offer assistance. They stare at Ox to give him a hint.)

Ox: Are you talking about me? No problem. I will help you.

Cat and Rat: Great! Thank you, Ox!

Ox: Don't mention it! No one has ever praised me like you two before. I will definitely help you to swim across that river.

All: Let's go. We will go to take part in the race.

Scene 3 – At the Starting Line

Commentator 1: Listeners, this is an exciting day!

Commentator 2: Look! Thousands of people have arrived here.

Commentator 1: Look, the emperor has also arrived. Let's ask him to say a few words to everyone.

Commentator 2: Your Majesty, who do you think will get first prize today?

Emperor: I like all the animals, but I think Dragon will probably get the first prize.

Commentator 1: Right, because he can fly across the river.

Emperor: There's also Dog. He is an expert at swimming. He should be in front.

Commentator 2: Who do you think will have more difficulty?

Emperor: Among these animals, Cat and Rat are so puny. Moreover, they cannot swim!

Commentator 1: You are quite right! The race is about to begin. Let's see what happens!

Commentator 2: The animals are already at their positions!

Emperor: OK! Is everyone ready? (All of the animals make excited noises.) 1, 2, 3, ... begin!

Commentator 1: The animals are running quickly to the riverside!

Commentator 2: Tiger is the first to jump into the river with the Snake and Dog following him in.

Emperor: Look! Where is Dragon flying to?

Commentator 1: Right! The wrong direction! It looks like he is going to help those villagers over there.

Commentator 2: Quickly, look! What is Dog doing?

Emperor: It looks like he is washing! Who would wash at time like this?

Commentator 1: We'll look at how the other animals are doing.

Commentator 2: Now Tiger is in the lead. He is really quick!

Emperor: Rabbit follows tightly behind. He is very clever. He is crossing by jumping rocks.

Commentator 1: Ox is there! Look! He is carrying Cat and Rat on his back and swimming ahead with all its might!

Commentator 2: Oh no! Tiger has been swept to the back by the flow of water.

Emperor: Rabbit has stopped there. He has no rocks ahead to jump on!

Commentator 1: Now Ox, Cat and Rat are in front!

Commentator 2: You never would have thought that!

Rat: Brother Ox, hurry up, hurry up!

Cat: I've been constantly looking to see where they've swum to.

Ox: I am already doing my best! The water current is too strong. It's almost exhausting me to death!

Rat: Heavens! Is that Tiger? Get further from him! (pointing backwards)

Cat: We are now ahead! Come on, Brother Ox!

Ox: It's lucky that both of you are small and light!

Rat: The finishing line is just ahead! I'm about to get first place!

Ox: You are going to get first place? What do you mean? It has been me working hard to swim ahead. You should let me get out of the river first.

Cat: You are right. We will definitely let you get out first.

Rat: (With Cat and Ox unaware, Rat speaks to the audience.) I want to get first place. But Cat will definitely run more quickly than me.

Cat: Come on, Brother Ox!

Rat: If we jump off Ox's back together, Cat will definitely get to the finish line before me. That would not be OK!

Ox: Are we still in front? The water is too deep! I cannot see anything!

Cat: We'll be at the finishing line soon! Ha ha, I am first! Sorry, I mean to say we are about to be first!

Rat: Brother Cat, look over there. Isn't Tiger approaching?

Cat: Where? I can't see!

Rat: Right over there, in the water! (Rat pushes Cat into the river. Cat floats away.)

Ox: What about Cat? Where has he gone?

Cat: Quickly, save me!

Rat: He jumped in to help Rabbit. Don't worry about him. Keep swimming! We are about to reach the finish line!

Ox: I seem to be standing on ground again. Wait. I will just shake my body free of water and then we'll ...

Rat: Bye! (Rat runs forward and rushes past the finishing line.)

Ox: Wait wait! This is not fair. (He runs after Rat.)

Scene 5 – By the River

Commentator 1: I would never have imagined it. Rat has come first!

Commentator 2: Ox must be very angry! Although at least he is second!

Emperor: Ox, you have done very well!

Commentator 1: Ox and Rat have both finished. How come Cat hasn't arrived?

Commentator 2: Quickly, look! Tiger has come third.

Commentator 2: Emperor has just announced Rabbit has come fourth.

Emperor: I think Dragon helped Rabbit to finish the race.

Commentator 1: Right. Dragon has been constantly helping others today.

Emperor: He really is a kind animal!

Commentator 2: Right! So people have always liked him.

Commentator 1: Who has come sixth?

(They pause a moment. All eyes turn to the two citizens.)

Citizen 1: Brother, what are you looking at?

Citizen 2: It looks like Horse will soon be at the finishing line. However, why is he jumping to and fro on the ground and not going forward?

Citizen 1: Look! There is Snake. He has climbed to the side of Horse. He has frightened Horse so much that he's jumping about. Ha ha ha ha. Snake is really sneaky!

Citizen 2: The eighth is ... I can't see anything.

Citizen 1: Look quickly. Who is that?

Citizen 2: That is Rooster! He is standing on a raft. Monkey is on the river bank pulling the raft.

Citizen 1: Is that Goat pushing the raft from behind? Ha ha! It really is Goat pushing.

Citizen 2: They are all helping each other to cross the river.

Emperor: (shouting from one side of the stage) Excellent! Rooster, Monkey and Sheep cannot swim!

Citizen 1: They will soon arrive at the finish line!

Emperor: The three of them are doing well!

Citizen 1: They are crossing together. This is the best possible way!

Citizen 2: Right! They are helping each other. They have come in eighth, ninth and tenth place.

Citizen 1: Dog is coming! He will be in eleventh place.

Emperor: A pity! He should have won first place. He is an expert swimmer!

Citizen 2: It seems like he had a wash. Perhaps he didn't want to take part in the race dirty and smelly.

Emperor: Now he is so clean!

Citizen 1: Quickly, look! Is that Pig? What is he holding in his trotter?

Citizen 2: Noodles I think. Does he eat noodles even during a race?

Citizen 1: Come on, Pig! Don't think about eating!

Citizen 2: Ha ha ha! He must be extremely hungry, so he was eating the whole way.

Citizen 1: The results of the race are in. The order of the animals has been determined.

Citizen 2: Congratulations to everybody. Today's race was wonderful!

(They applaud the animals.)

Citizen 1: And Cat? Where is Cat?

Citizen 2: There! He's still in the water.

Emperor: He was not among the first twelve. He must be furious!

Scene 6 – Outside the Imperial Palace

Emperor: Rat, I award the first year to you!

(Everyone cheers and imitates animal noises to celebrate.)

Emperor: I declare that the first year is the Rat Year!

Ox: This is so unfair. The first place should be me. It was I who took him on my back!

Rat: I was not relaxing! I helped you to navigate! Ox: I was the strongest and I swam most quickly!

Rat: Only having a strong body is not enough. You also need to be clever!

Emperor: Yes, Ox, Rat has a point. He is cleverer than you, so he got first place.

Ox: OK. Second place is second place!

Cat: (Cat leaps onto the podium.) I've arrived. I've arrived! What place am I?

Emperor: Cat, where did you go? The race is already over.

Ox: Rat said you went to help Rabbit?

Cat: He is talking nonsense! He pushed me into the river. So I was delayed until last!

(Cat stealthily approaches Rat.)

Rat: Brother Cat, please don't be angry! I didn't do it on purpose!

Cat: I will eat you, damn Rat!

Rat: No, no! We are still friends!

Cat: Where are you running? (Cat chases Rat off the podium.)

Ox: They will never be friends again!

Rat: Brother Ox, quickly save me!

Ox: (He rushes off the podium.) Stop making a commotion! Listen! The emperor is speaking.

Emperor: I now declare that tonight we will hold a party to celebrate the naming of the first year

... the Rat Year!

END
